Jesus often scolded the Pharisees because on the outside they seemed very holy, but on the inside they were full of lies and hatred (see Matthew 23). Saul of Tarsus (later called Paul) was a Pharisee.

Jesus Heals on the Other Side of the Galilee

Wednesday, November 7

Performing Miracles

It is one thing for a man to teach what he claims is truth; it is quite another thing to demonstrate one's authority to claim that truth. That is why the miracles which Jesus performs are such a vital part of his ministry. They are not being performed merely to entertain, or to show off his divine power, or even to convince the skeptical. Nor does Jesus heal the sick and raise the dead simply because of his great compassion for those who suffer.

More than this, the miracles are a means of confirming the message that the kingdom of God is now being established with power! God is establishing His rule through Christ, and proving it with the miraculous power which and disease. Mark's account takes Jesus from His teaching in parables and follows Him throughout Galilee as He confirms the authority of His teaching with miraculous works. (F. La Gard Smith, The Daily Bible)

Please read the above scriptures before answering the questions.

10. When the demon-possessed man asked to go with Jesus, what did Jesus say to him?
11. How does this man respond to Jesus' command?

Sending Out the Twelve

Feeding the 5000
Walking on the Water

Sunday, November 11

Please read the above scriptures before answering the questions.

Sending Out The Twelve

After His second rejection in His hometown of Nazareth, Jesus gains renewed encouragement as He is met by crowds in other parts of Galilee. Aware of their need for spiritual guidance, Jesus calls for those who are willing to work among the multitudes for the sake of His kingdom. The time is especially appropriate, then for sending out the 12 apostles on a special mission of teaching and performing miracles with the power He gives them. He warns them that they, like all who would work in the Lord's name, will be persecuted and will face the need for sacrifice.

1. At the end of Jesus' great Galilean ministry, He comes to His hometown of Nazareth. Look at Mark 6:1-6a, what attitude did His hometown have about Jesus?
2. In Matt. 9:35-38, Jesus saw people in the towns and villages. What did He say to His disciples?

3. In Mark 6:7, when Jesus sent out the 12, what did He give them?
4. From Matt. 10:5-15, what instruction did Jesus give them?
Do

Do Not
5. From Matt. 10:16-17, what were characteristics of two animals Jesus suggested his apostles become like?
6. From Matt. 10:34-39, did Jesus say anything about conflict and sacrifice in the apostles' lives?

Application

1. Think of ways you sacrifice for God.

Herod Is Curious About Jesus

Mark 6:14-33

1. Why was King Herod disturbed when he heard about Jesus?
2. What had King Herod done to John the Baptist?
3. When the apostles returned from their mission of teaching and performing miracles, what did Jesus and his disciples do?

Feeding the 5000

Mark 6:30-44

As His ministry nears its second year, Jesus reaches a peak of popularity among the multitudes. He amazes a crowd of over 5000 by feeding them all, using just a few loaves and some fish. Upon that demonstration, they are ready to make Him king, but of course they have misunderstood the nature of His kingdom. When Jesus says that He is the true bread of life and that they must eat His flesh, many are offended and turn away. They can accept Jesus as a popular hero who works wonders, but they are unwilling to accept the demands of following Him.

1. Look at Mark 6:31-32. Why were Jesus and the apostles trying to get away from the people?
2. What did the people do to find the apostles and Jesus?
3. Which apostle did Jesus ask where he could buy bread? (John 6:5)
4. Which apostle brought Jesus a boy who had 5 loaves and 2 fish? (John 6:8)
5. How much was left over after all the disciples ate?

Walking on Water

1. Look in Mark 6:45. What did Jesus make the disciples do?
2. Look in John 6:15-17. What did the people want to do with Jesus?
3. From Matt. 14:24-33, tell about Jesus walking on the water in your own words.

Jesus Challenges Scribes and Pharisees

Although many of the common people followed Jesus, the Pharisees and scribes tried to find fault with Jesus.

1. What did the scribes and Pharisees complain about to Jesus?
2. Why was hand washing important to the Jews and Pharisees? (Mark 7:3-4)
3. How did Jesus respond to the question? (Mark 7:8)
4. Look up the word hypocrite. What does it mean? Use it in a sentence as you would describe a person you know.
5. Look at Mark 7:15. Explain Jesus' parable to the multitude.

Gentile Woman Shows Her Faith

Tyre and Sidon were two cities on the Mediterranean sea coast. They were several miles apart, but they were prominent cities of Phoenicia and were often referred to together as the region of Tyre and Sidon. Sidon is about 25 miles north of Tyre and was the chief city of Phoenicia. It is thought that Sidon was the older of the two cities, but Tyre was the chief seaport.

Even before the time of Christ, the art of glass blowing was discovered in Sidon. Both cities were famous for selling purple dye made from a certain type of shellfish. Many of the famous "cedars of Lebanon" were made into ships or taken in the ships to far away countries. Sidon was about 50 miles from Nazareth.

1 Kings 5:1-6 tells us about Hiram, King of Tyre, helping Solomon with the temple and of the ability of the people of Sidon in cutting timber. One interesting thing about Tyre was a prophecy in Ezekiel 26:1-6. The prophet foretold that Tyre would become a place for spreading of nets. At this time it seemed foolish, for Tyre was a great city. But the prophecy was fulfilled and is one of many that help us realize the Bible is inspired of God.

1. Mark the sea coast cities of Tyre and Sidon on your map.
2. When Jesus came to the house, what did He do?
3. From Matt. 15:23, what did the disciples want Jesus to do?
4. What was Jesus' response?

Jesus was always helpful to others. Test yourself on how helpful you are to your parents.

Answer each question honestly and put the number in the blank. When you finish the five questions, add your score and see what the key says.

1. When your father or mother ask you to do something you
 - 1) ignore them
 - (2) wait as long as you can
 - (3) wait until they tell you several times
 - (4) say "Wait a minute" and then go
 - (5) do the job right then.

2. How often have you done things for your father because you love him?
 - (1) never
 - (2) once or twice
 - (3) several times
 - (4) very often
 - (5) every chance you get

3. How often have you done nice things for your mother that you didn't have to do?
 - (1) never
 - (2) once or twice
 - (3) several times
 - (4) very often
 - (5) every chance you get

4. How well do you keep up with your clothes, toys, etc.?
 - (1) leave them where you are when you are through with them
 - (2) put them back in their place when your parents make you
 - (3) put them back in their place when parents remind you
 - (4) put them back in their place once in a while
 - (5) keep things where they belong regularly

5. When do you straighten and clean your room?
 - (1) never
 - 2) when forced to do so
 - (3) when your parent remind you
 - (4) once in a while
 - (5) regularly without having to be reminded or told.

TOTAL POINTS

KEY:

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 25 | What a helpful person you are! Keep up the great work. Your helpfulness pleases Christ and your parents. |
| 20-24 | You must be a happy person, make your parents happy and please Christ. |
| 15-19 | Fair, but you should try to be more helpful. |
| 0-14 | Write down some ideas with your parents on how to be more helpful, as Christ was helpful to others |

Peter Confesses Jesus As The Christ

Mark 8:27-30

Jesus and His disciples go to Caesarea Philippi.

Caesarea Philippi was a town in the extreme northern part of Palestine. It was east of Tyre and Sidon in the hill country of Mt. Hermon. Augustus Caesar gave the town to Herod the Great, and he built a temple there to honor Caesar. Later, Herod's son Philip, renamed the town for Caesar and himself. The town is on one of the four sources of the Jordan River near where the streams unite to form the main river.

At Caesarea Philippi, a very important conversation took place. Jesus asked His disciples who people were saying He was. All the miracles and the wonderful lessons caused a lot of people to talk. Some loved Him and some, especially some of the religious leaders, hated Him. Some said He must be John the Baptist come back to life. Others named some of the other prophets, including Elijah, who had been taken into heaven without dying.
