Memory Challenge

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

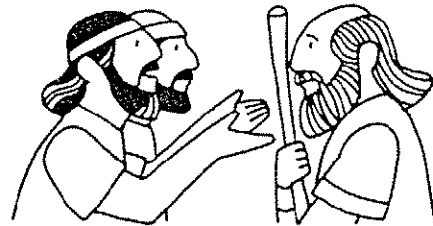

He makes me to lie down in green
pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.

He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteous ness
For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever.

I Samuel 8:19-20

"We want a king over us.
Then we will be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles."

"...But his delight is in the law of the Lord and on His law he meditates day and night."

Lesson 1

David and The Psalms

David wrote many of the Psalms during different periods of his life. The 23 Psalm reflects his trust in God during the time that he tended his father's sheep. As you learn to say the 23rd Psalm, remember how David must have felt, when he was alone with his flocks. On the next page you will find some pictures that may illustrate some of the ideas.

Memory Challenge Review

Draw a line from the phrases from Psalm 23 below to the pictures that best describe them:

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He makes me to lie down in
green pastures;

He leads me beside the still waters.
He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of
For His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For you are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

You anoint my head with oil;

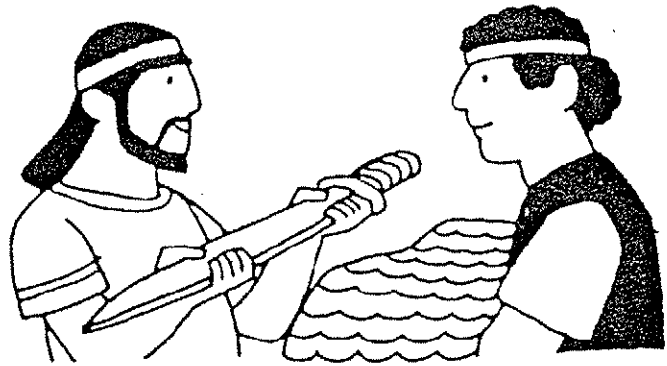

My cup runs over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord
Forever.

Read I Chronicles 10:1-14

The two books of Chronicles give a record of events during the period of the kings of Israel. This section records the death of Saul and his sons. The first 12 verses are almost identical to the ones we read in I Samuel 31. The last two verses add some insight into God's view of Saul's reign as king.

1. What reason is given in verse 13 for Saul's death? _____
2. Didn't he just die in a fierce battle? _____
3. Who do you think controlled the battle? _____
4. What were two specific things listed that Saul had done? _____
_____
5. Instead of going to the witch or medium, who should Saul have turned to? _____
6. Why do you think Saul turned to a witch instead of God? _____
_____
7. Do you think he might have realized that God was on David's side now? _____
8. Who will become the next king? _____
9. If Saul was defeated because of his disobedience to God, what lesson do you think David and all future kings could learn? _____
10. What is the most important thing for a king to do to have a successful reign? Build a great military army or follow God's simple instructions? _____
11. If you were Saul, and you could give David some advice, what would it be? _____
